

Walking Together 2012

a congregational resource event

March 17
Chippewa Falls Middle School

Sponsored by the Northwest Synod of Wisconsin

- † Walking Together is an event for the congregation at large: all disciples whether young or “seasoned.” Clergy, as well as lay leaders; councils, as well as committee members; staff, as well as volunteers—all are invited to attend.
- † Designed to share best practices and resources, this is a valuable learning opportunity to strengthen skills, gather resources, network with others, and discover new ways to enhance congregational and individual ministries.
- † With over 60 workshops to choose from, this day will be packed with practical ideas you can implement in your congregation.

Here is a sampling of workshops that will be offered:

Blended Worship: Worship as if God Matters

Rev. Nathan Aaseng

Looking for a way to increase worship attendance by appealing to the preferences of the people? Then this isn't for you. It's an exploration of how to put God, rather than the consumer, at the center of worship. How can we encounter a God who is both holy (set apart) and accessible (loving), honoring both tradition and our mission context?

If I Had a Hammer . . .

Amy Johnson

Working for justice takes on many forms. Numerous congregations send their youth and adults on domestic or international mission trips each year, but what happens to that passion for ministry once they return? We will discuss options for all to tell of that experience and use their voices to bring daily bread to God's children through advocacy.

Living Inside Out

Rev. Bob Leshner

Living Inside Out is a way to set aside meaningful time with God in the midst of busy lives. We will experience one form of being with God, learn about other forms, hear how one congregation has started doing this regularly, and share a little of our faith journey.

Are You Living a Joyful and Generous Life?

Jennie Childs

The desire to give back and help others is powerful. You can transform lives and make a positive difference in the world when sharing of our time, talents and treasures. We will provide you with key concepts that will help you and those you love to live generous and joyful lives free from financial worry.
